NUMB. 1847

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9. 1741.

To RALPH FREEMAN, Esq;

SIR,

HE Conduct of the Malecontents has been of late of ſuch a very extraordinary Nature, that I think every honeſt and good Man can't but be a little alarm-ed: Tho' their trite and inconſiſtent Arguments demonſtrate the Badneſs of their Cauſe, and their Unworthineſs of being perus'd, much leſs anſwer'd by ſober Perſon; yet as they are loaded with ſuch Falſities, and have ſuch a manifeſt Tendency to Sedition and Rebellion, any one who has the Intereſt of his Country, the Proſperity of the Church, and the Love of his King at heart, can't but be a little con-cern'd leſt they ſhould inſnare the leſs knowing and un-thinking to contribute to the deſir'd, tho' not expected Ends of their Papiſtical Authors. I confeſs, ſome time I was a little ſtagger'd in endeavouring to diſtinguiſh whether their Writings proceeded more from Ignorance or Deſign; but as I have prevail'd upon my Patience, to ſpare ſmall Reluctance, to read a few of their late In-genious Letters, I think I may very juſtly conclude they are Poſſeſſed of both. Leſt I ſhould ſeem to lay a heavier Load to theſe Gentlemen than they really deſerve, what I ſay, I hope, will prove the Aſſertion, and convince the impartial Part of the World, that they are both an arrant and villainous Pack of Scribblers. Whoever has look'd a little into State-Affairs, is already ſatisfied of this Truth. To what End is this Forgery of fictitious Letters, this Coining of Advice from abroad, and then Learned Comments upon it? Whence proceeded all this ingenious Annotations upon a forg'd Letter from the Hague? Methinks this is the prettieſt Scheme that was ever contriv'd by the moſt abandon'd Wretches. This is truly the deep Reſult of the moſt diabolical Councils. Sure this is the laſt Card they have to play. Libels thrown into the World by their own Pen, diſpers'd and paid by their Bounty, and then animadverted upon by the ſame poiſonous Hands. Will any Man tell me the Reaſon of their Country demands this Proceeding? Or will any one deny that it is with any other View than the Subverſion of both Church and State? Is it from their Principles they derive their Title to Patriotiſm? Do the Hireling Scribblers dare to offer any Excuſe for endeavouring to inflame the whole Nation by publiſhing a falſe Alarm, and then expatiating upon it in their Lu-cubrations, uſe their whole Billingſgate Eloquence to per-ſuade the People ſuch a Piece of Miſconduct happen'd thro' the Weakneſs or Choice of the Adminiſtration, as never had any other Being than in their own Fancies! This is ſurely uſing both Liberty of Conſcience and Reaſon too with a witneſs. It would be with Regret I could pronounce the Name of Traitor upon any of my Countrymen, but when our Rights and Privileges are attack'd, our Miniſter impeach'd without Proof, and other Crimes than what are the Effects of Diſap-pointment, and the Offſpring of Envy; which amount to nothing more than the Honour of the Accuſed. A MONSTER! whom two ſucceeding Princes have ho-nour'd with their Favour, and entruſted with their Power. All this is done by diſcarded, diſappointed, and ambi-tious Malecontents, who are deeply concern'd in the Cabals of Power at home, for the Intereſt of another Court abroad. I ſay, If ſuch Gentlemen as theſe do not merit the Name, I am then at a Loſs for the Mean'ing of the Word. From what Principle of Patriotiſm, I ſhould be glad to be inform'd, proceeds this vindictive Purſuit of Sir Robert, who has ſteer'd this Nation ſo much to its Glory? Whence this changing and inconſiſtent Way of Reaſoning to diſconcert all Meaſures for the Publick Good, and pave the Way to Anarchy and Confuſion? Were not the Gentlemen in the Oppoſition daily exclaiming againſt the Burden of the Publick Debts and Taxes before the Figure betwixt Spain and us? And yet, were not the very ſame Gentlemen who endeavour'd firſt to involve them, by hurrying the Nation into an expenſive War, which, perhaps, all Things might have been ac-commodated as much to the Honour and Intereſt of our Nation another Way? If the Nation groan'd under a Load of Debt, this, no doubt, was the Way to alleviate her Burden. If this is Patriotiſm, then all Perſons who mean well but the Intereſt of their Country are the vileſt Traitors. I ſhall leave the World to judge whether the Noble Gentleman at the Head of the Adminiſtration, who ſo long preſerved the Honour and Intereſt of the Nation in Peace; or you Miſcreants in the Faction, who have ſo long endeavouring to deſtroy our Conſtitu-tion, to introduce Slavery and Popery, are the moſt meritorious of the Name of Patriot. How you could ſo far flatter yourſelves with Hopes of ſucceeding in your late Catalinian Conſpiracy, is paſt my finding out. Surely, Gold and Ambition had blinded your Underſtanding; you had certainly miſtaken the Inſtructions of your old Friend abroad, or elſe being weary of being only Tools and Jobbers to the profeſs'd Enemy of his Country, acted according to your own wiſe Heads. It was a melancholy Story, indeed, Gentlemen, after all your Efforts, after ſo many Libels publiſhed, ſo many Lies broached, to be only ridicul'd and laugh'd at. But what fills you with the greateſt Chagrin is, that your Diſappointment has depreciated the Value of your Lucubrations, having leſſen'd your Credit among your Cuſtomers; for, according to the common Report, the People now begin to make a right Uſe of your Incendiary Letters, that is, light their Pipes with them.

As you, Gentlmen, have ever valued yourſelves upon ſtarting chimerical Difficulties, raiſing publick Feuds and Animoſities, and appeared diſſatisfy'd with the moſt pru-dent Meaſures taken in Peace, your ſame Conduct is leſs to be wonder'd at now the Nation is in a War: For as you are reſolv'd to oppoſe all Meaſures taken by the Adminiſtra-tion, nothing can be concluded but that you are at Enmity with the Negotiators, and not with the Negociations them-ſelves. It is an infallible Rule in common Affairs, that when one Man is continually exclaiming againſt his Neigh-bour, when he never approves of any of his Actions, nor has ſo much Charity as ever to give him a good Word, that the Reaſon of his uſing him ſo is the Effect of blind Ha-tred and inveterate Malice, that he is determin'd to ſully his laudable Qualities, and malevolently expoſe what may happen thro' Inadvertency, or what the Wit of Man is not capable of guarding againſt. May not the Obſervation be carried to State-affairs? Yes certainly, the Parallel runs upon all four. The Queſtion then is, Whether the Admi-niſtration ever tranſacted any thing praiſe-worthy? I will only mention one Inſtance obvious to all Men, I mean, our Conqueſts in the Weſt-Indies, and the Choice of a Gentle-man to conduct 'em, who had often before expreſs'd his Diſſatisfaction in the Houſe at our Delay with the Court of Spain. I hope then it will be allow'd that thoſe Con-queſts merit our Approbation, and that the Admiral was one of the propereſt Perſons that the wiſeſt Adminiſtra-tion could have gave the Command to. Well, no ſooner was the News of the brave Admiral's Succeſs arriv'd, but how did theſe Scribblers reflect upon the Miniſtry, and en-deavour to deceive the People? Did they not ſay, that his Conduct was contrary to his Orders, that he had gone be-yond them, (tho' at the ſame time they extended to Car-thagena) that he would be call'd to an Account, that he was ſent there with an Expectation of never returning, and much more Nonſenſe too ſervile to be repeated? I think this is Proof beyond Demonſtration of the foregoing Ob-ſervation, and that their ſole Aim is Tyranny and Rebel-lion, and their only Motives Envy and Diſappointment.

I had no Thoughts, Mr. Freeman, of appearing in Print againſt theſe Gentlemen, but their very extraordinary Pro-ceedings are a ſufficient Excuſe for this Letter. If I have us'd ſome hard Expreſſions, the Force of Truth hath ex-tracted them, which I know they'll pardon, becauſe they have us'd better Gentlemen than ever they had the Honour to be employed for, in the moſt ſcurrilous Manner.

I am, Sir, your humble Servant,

Sept. 30. 1741. PAUL SALT.

AMERICA.

Boſton, Aug. 18. Capt. Tyng Commander of the Pro-vince Snow being ordered upon a Cruize off New Hamp-ſhire, in order to meet with the Maſt-ſhip, came up with her on Wedneſday laſt, and on Thurſday Morning Capt. Tyng arriv'd here, having on board Mr. Griffin a Mer-chant of this Town, whom he took out of the Maſt-ſhip, and who brought with him his Majeſty's Royal Commiſ-ſion, appointing the Hon. William Shirley, Eſq; Captain General and Governor of this Province; and Friday laſt, being the Day appointed for publiſhing the ſaid Commiſ-ſion, the Hon. his Majeſty's Council, and the Houſe of Repreſentatives, and a great Number of Officers and other Gentlemen, waited upon Mr. Shirley at his Houſe in the Morning, and about eleven o' Clock walk'd in Proceſſion from thence with him, and as he paſs'd by the Province Houſe, his late Excellency, who, together with his Ho-nour the Lieut. Governor, was ſtanding at the Gate, with the Troop and Regiment of Militia of this Town drawn up there ready to receive Mr. Shirley, join'd him, and then the whole Company walk'd in Proceſſion to the Town houſe, the Streets being lin'd with the Guards and Regiment, and the Guns firing from Caſtle William, his Majeſty's Ship Portland, and other Veſſels in the Harbour, and the Bells ringing: The Commiſſion was then pub-liſh'd in the Council Chamber, and the uſual Oaths admi-niſtred to his Excellency Mr. Shirley; after which his Excellency was pleas'd to iſſue out a Proclamation, by and with the Advice of his Majeſty's Council, ordering all Of-ficers Civil and Military within the Province to hold, uſe and exerciſe their reſpective Poſts till further Orders, which ſaid Proclamation was publiſh'd in the Balcony of the Council Chamber. After which the Guards and Re-giment gave three Huzzas, and fir'd three Volleys. Then his Excellency, attended by the late Governor, the Lieu-tenant Governor, Gentlemen of the Council, and other Gentlemen, walk'd to Mr. Wethered's in King ſtreet, where a ſuitable Entertainment was provided for them, as was alſo at the Royal Exchange Tavern for the Gentle-men of the Houſe of Repreſentatives, and at the Orange-tree Tavern for the Officers of the Guards and Militia, and other Gentlemen: And in the Evening there were ſeveral fine Fireworks diſplay'd from the Top of the Town-houſe and other Places. The whole Affair was conducted with great Order and Decency.

On the 16th inſtant arrived here Capt. Beney in 30 Days from Jamaica, who confirms the Account of Admi-ral Vernon's being ſail'd. He was chas'd off S. Carolina by two Spaniſh Privateers, who fir'd ſeveral times at him, and one of his Men had his Hand ſhot off, but he had the good Luck to get clear of them.

The ſame Day Capt. Eaſt arriv'd here from London. He had been out 13 Weeks, was bound for Virginia, and put in for Proviſions, which they were in great Want of. We hear he has a Number of Convicts on board.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Glouceſter, Oct. 3. Laſt Week died Mrs. Colcheſter, of the Hill, in the 72d Year of her Age, Relict of Maynard Colcheſter, Eſq; and Daughter of Sir Edward Clarke, Bart. formerly Lord Mayor of London. Her Charity was great, her Virtue ſtrict, and a conſtant Piety diffus'd itſelf thro' the whole Courſe of her Life; ſhe was greatly be-lov'd, and is univerſally lamented. Her Corpſe was in-terr'd in the Family Vault at Weſtbury in this County.

Some time ſince, we hear, the Nuptials were celebrated between the Rev. Mr. Zacheus Burnett, Chaplain to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and Miſs Suky More, a Lady of great Fortune, and ſuperior Merit; ſprung from a Branch of a very noted Family of that Name, remark-able for its Antiquity and Figure.

HOME PORTS.

Graveſend, Oct. 7. Paſs'd by the William and Betty, Turner, from Virginia; the Betty, Wagerman, from Maryland; the Montague, Freeman, from Eaſt India; the Duke, Hindman, from ditto; the Elliot, Payne, from Genoa and Gibraltar; the Nancy, Tracey, from Madeira; the Pembroke, Shannon, from Barbados; the Trial, Par-ker, from ditto; the Warren, Cathcart, from Boſton; the Phenix, Romaine, from Carolina; the John and Wil-liam, Newell, from Virginia; and the Prince William, Langworth, from Eaſt India.

LONDON, October 9.

On Monday laſt Richard Stephens, Eſq; was elected Bailiff of the Borough of Leominſter, to the general Satis-faction of the Inhabitants there, having ſerv'd that Office twenty-two Years ago, and the Office of Juſtice of the Peace for the County of Hereford for near twenty Years, with great Impartiality, Honour and Integrity.

On Wedneſday laſt the Lady of the Right Hon. the Lord Abergaveny was ſafely deliver'd of a Son, at his Houſe in Brook-ſtreet Groſvenor-ſquare.

Sir John James, Bart. who dy'd on Monday laſt at his Houſe in Featherſtone Buildings, has left his Land Eſtate to be equally divided between Bethlehem Hoſpital and the Infirmary at Hyde Park Corner. He has left ſeveral other charitable Legacies.

Yeſterday Morning the Prince William, Capt. Lang-worth, the Montague, Capt. Freeman, and the Duke, Capt. Hinman, all from Eaſt-India, came up to their Moorings at Erith.

Yeſterday Morning died Mr. Rutherford, Clerk to the Haberdaſhers Company.

On Tueſday laſt died Mr. Alderman Ball of Saffron-Wal-den, who for many Years has been an Alderman of the Corporation, and ſeveral times Mayor thereof.

On Wednesday last their Graces the Duke and Dutchess of Dorset came to Town, from their Seat at Knowle near Sevenoaks in Kent, to their House at Whitehall.

Last Night his Grace the Duke of Richmond, Master of the Horse to the King, came to Town from his Seat at Goodwood in Sussex, to his House in Privy-Garden, for the Winter Season.

Yesterday began the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, at Westminster-Hall, when Sir John Gonson, Knt. Chairman, gave a learned and eloquent Charge to the Grand Jury. After which the Court adjourn'd to Hicks's Hall on Monday next.

Mr. Wilson, of the oldest Lottery-office, Charing-cross, having secur'd by his Subscription a large Quantity of Tickets in the present Lottery, is thereby enabled to supply the Town with them on the most reasonable Terms, either in Parcels or single ones. His Method of dividing Tickets into Shares, so advantageous to small Adventurers, having been attended in all Lotteries past with surprising Success to the Purchasers, occasions every Day more than other a universal Demand for them. As this Lottery consists of 10000 Tickets less than any former one since the Year 1713, besides seventeen capital Prizes more than were in the last, all of them from 5000 l. to 500 l. each, it is more than probable Tickets will be much dearer before the Drawing, which the Act of Parliament directs shall begin sooner this Year than the last.

The GRAND ANALEPTICK:

OR,

The truly great Restorer of the Generative Faculty.

THIS Analeptick is happily experienc'd by All who have used it, to be Infallible for the Cure of Impotency, old obstinate Gleets, involuntary Emissions, and general Defects in the Parts of Generation, so as to restore from the most surprising Weakness, to an exalted Vigour, even those who were pronounced by several able Physicians and Surgeons Incurable. The Proof of which, let these Gentlemen, whose Case is so adjudged, commence the Use of the Analeptick, and if it proves not so admirable as to restore them also to their youthful Ability, they shall not be charged for the same; and if it do, their Honour only shall stand engaged for the Recompence, and any other who fail of Cure, his Money shall be returned. The Application is Inward and Outward, which, in general Cases, I peremptorily affirm, are indispensibly necessary to the Cure; in Evidence of which, whoever applies the outward Application alone, will, in a very little Time, find the Stupidity of the Parts removed, and their deviated Spirits flow again in their natural Course, so as not to be done by any Thing taken in at the Mouth, in a much longer Time, if at all. These Medicines are appointed by the Author, to be sold at Mr. Burley's, the Sign of the Goat at Charing-Cross; and at Mr. Cattern's, at the Bible in Pope's-Head Alley, Cornhill; in Five Shillings, Half-Guinea, or Guinea Bottles.

N. B. Patients who use these Medicines, are desired in Cases of extraordinary Weakness, to apply to the Author, whereby their Cure will be hastened, without any additional Charge to them; or whoever in Town or Country, sends their Remarks of themselves, in a Letter directed to the above Mr. Cattern's, shall be answer'd; and their Case explain'd to them, with some serviceable Advice therein, Gratis.

No Letters received except Post paid.

An Infallible and Instant Cure

For DEAFNESS, THICKNESS of HEA[RING], PAIN or NOISE in the EARS, &c. by a Chymical Specifick DROPS.

WHICH infinitely excel all other[s] dicines ever offer'd to the Publick, or known in th[e] for they directly cure Deafness, be it ever so bad, and [the] ness of Hearing and Noise in the Ears, almost at once, after all other Means have failed, and without Trouble least Uneasiness whatever, as many Thousands have exp[e]

They effectually remove all Pain occasion'd by Cold, the Tympanum or Drum of the Ear, free the auditory [N]erve Obstruction, and remedy all Defects of the Hearing T[ube] most in an Instant, causing these to hear exceeding well, who before were in a Manner totally Deaf.

Hundreds who were so very bad, as not able to hear when best close by them, and therefore despaired [of] ever relieved, have been quickly and perfectly cured to their great Joy and Admiration.

In a Word, nothing in Nature can come near them for [the] and almost immediate Cure of DEAFNESS [from] what Cause soever; but the great Esteem and Reputation justly gained for many Years past, have occasion'd (as [in] Cases) many Counterfeits to come abroad; beware [of] such Impositions, these excellent and only true Specifick [Drops] ing to be had only, by the Author's Appointment, of [the] women at the two Blue Posts in Haydon-Yard, in the [Mi]3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions, and no where else in [the]

The most Noble ELIXIR,

For Hypochondriack Melancholy in [both] and the Hysterick Disease or Vapo[urs] Women.

IN three Days Time demonstrat[es] every one who takes it, that it is absolutely infallible thorough Cure of those perplexing Indispositions, even highest and most grievous Degree, where nothing but reigns, where Reasoning is interrupted or depraved, and the Mind is confused with terrible Perturbation, Anxie[ty] Despondency, even to Distraction, and the Body afflicted almost innumerable Ailments.

'Tis surprizing to see how soon this CELEBR[ATED] ELIXIR, (even a few Doses of it only) entirely [dis]pels the vast Variety of Symptoms, and induces a new Train of and pleasant Ideas, instead of those deep and black Th[ou]ghts those direful Apprehensions that so tenaciously dwelt [on] Soul, clouded the Understanding, and destroy'd all Ne[w] ever receiving Comfort again, for it occasions a Flow disturb'd Spirits, and causes bright Gleams of Joy to break the Heart, and chace away the whole Load of depressed [Me]lancholy Imaginations so effectually, that the Patients are relieved both in Body and Mind; and now enjoying perfect free and lively Spirits, steady, serene and gay Thoughts as much amaz'd that they could be chain'd down to such a Way of Thinking, such dreadful Fears, and dark Incons[ol]ate as before, they were hopeless of ever getting free from [it].

In a Word, the Effect of this NOBLE ELIXIR suddenly and infallibly curing HYPOCHONDRIACK LANCHOLY in Men, and the HYSTERICK DISE[ASE] or VAPOURS in Women, in all their Shapes and A[p]pearances, even after all other Remedies have proved fruitless, expressible, as the vast Numbers of both Sexes who have perfectly cured by it, with the utmost Satisfaction declare.

It occasions no Manner of Disorder, is pleasant to take, Drops of it are a Dose, and is to be had only at Mr. RADF[ORD]'s Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's C[hurch] yard in the Strand, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

Dr. ROBERT EATON'S

BALSAMICK STYPTICK.

Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late Dw[elling] House, now Mr. DUTTON's in Salisbury Court, [Fle]et-street.

THIS Medicine restrains in a m[ost] surprizing Manner, all internal as well as ex[ternal] Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dan[gerous] Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting B[lood] also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoides or M[ens]es bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. used according to the plain Directions given with it) as appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the D[octor] himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians, a before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shoar, at H[ome] or Abroad, i. e. in all Climates therefore must be univer[sally] Useful.

The Doctor not only obtained his Majesty's Letters P[atent] for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine, also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the Colle[ge] Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. Some of the Apothecaries prepare a Styptick [by] Preseription of Helvetius, and use it in the Room of [Dr.] EATON's; but whoever tries both, will soon be perfe[ctly] that Our's exceeds their's in all Respects, in a most [ex]Degree.

LONDON, October 10.

Letters from Prague in Bohemia mention the Death of Francis Ferdinand Count de Kinski, Knight of the Golden Fleece, &c. who dy'd the 11th ult. O. S. at his Eſtate at Chlumetz, aged 63. He was Great Chancelor of Bohemia, as was his Father before him, but for Want of Health reſign'd that Employment ſome Years ago. He was the eldeſt of five Brothers, who all held conſiderable Employments under the late Emperor.

They write from Stockholm, that ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction had been taken into Cuſtody there for talking too freely of the preſent State of Affairs, but were releas'd on Promiſe of taking more Care what they ſaid for the future.

The Elector Palatine is ſaid to be entirely recover'd of his late Indiſpoſition.

They write from Genoa, that the Baron de Droſt, the Baron de Neuhoff's Nephew, who was baniſh'd from Corſica lately by the French General, was return'd to Calvi in conſequence of the general Pardon, and going to ſee his Wife whom he had left in the Iſland, but was nevertheleſs apprehended and committed to the Caſtle, on pretence that he had neither a Paſsport nor Permit from the Marquis de Spinola. They add, that the Queen of Hungary has lately paid all the Arrears due for the Sums ſhe borrow'd there.

Letters of the 8th inſt. N.S. from Ratisbon ſay, the Elector of Bavaria has publiſh'd an Edict, wherein he declares, that as he is under an unavoidable Neceſſity of being at an extraordinary Expence for the Recovery of the Dominions which are devolv'd to him, and as all his Vaſſals are oblig'd, as ſuch, to come and join his Army with the neceſſary Arms and Horſes, his Electoral Highneſs was nevertheleſs willing for this once to exempt them from the ſaid Obligation, on condition that every Subject or Vaſſal furniſh him in a Fortnight's time with fourſcore Florins.

They write from Madrid, that the Expedition to Italy is quite laid aſide, and that the Regiments appointed for it are return'd to their old Quarters.

The Queen of Hungary has lately made a conſiderable Promotion of Privy-Counſellors and other Officers both of the State and the Army, who are for moſt part Hungarians; of which Nation Alexander Caroli, Joſeph Eſterhaſi, and George Czack, are preferr'd to be Velt-Marſhals.

Letters of the 9th ult. from Conſtantinople ſay, the Porte has reſolv'd to ſend a new Body of Troops towards the Frontiers of Perſia, in order to repel the Sophi, who has made himſelf Maſter of Armenia, and was making ſuch Motions with his Army as if he intended to penetrate farther into the Turkiſh Empire.

Thoſe of the 19th ditto from Lisbon ſay, that Don Emanuel the King's Brother having a Deſign to travel abroad again, as 'tis ſaid to Italy, and to ſettle there, and it being perceiv'd that upon this Occaſion an Italian who ſerv'd as his Valet de Chambre, and a Friar who was his Confeſſor impos'd upon him, and gave him pernicious Advice, they were both apprehended by the King's Order, and his Majeſty has writ a Letter to his ſaid Brother, to divert him from his intended Ramble.

Yeſterday was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordſhips were pleaſed to put into Commiſſion the Sutherland, a 50 Gun Ship, and gave the Command thereof to Capt. Maynard, Captain of the Falmouth, lately arrived from the Weſt-Indies, which Ship is put into Chatham Dock in order to be rebuilt.

Their Lordſhips were likewiſe pleaſed to order that the Commiſſion and Warrant Officers, together with the Ships Crew belonging to the Falmouth, be turn'd over on board the Sutherland.

The ſame Day Thomas Pelham, Eſq; Member of Parliament for Lewes in Suſſex, and one of the Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, ſet out from his Houſe in Leiceſter-fields for the Bath, for the Recovery of his Health. And,

The Right Rev. Dr. Mawſon, Biſhop of Chicheſter, arrived at his Houſe at Kenſington, from his Palace at Chicheſter, for the Winter Seaſon.

A French Epitaph for the late Emperor CHARLES VI.

Des fiers Auſtrichiens giſt ici le dernier,
Trop tard pour ſon honneur, trop tot pour ſa famille;
En attendant un Heretier,
Ce Prince trouva l'art de laiſſer a ſa Fille
Un Heritage en l'air, des Droits litigieux,
Un Epoux depouille des Biens de ſes Ayeux:
De cent Titres brillant la pompeuſe Furnee,
Sans Argent, ſans Conſeil, ſans Ami, ſans Armee.

In Engliſh thus:

Of the proud AUSTRIAN Line the laſt is laid here,
For his Honour too late for his Children too quick,
Who in hopes a Male Heir would ſometime appear,
In his Wiſdom profound play'd his Daughter this Trick;
A Succeſſion he left her that's not to be had,
A Spouſe to whom nought from his Grandſires deſcend,
A long Liſt of Titles may make her run mad,
No Treaſure, no Council, no Army, no Friend.

ANTI-SYPHILICON

THE only ſhort and moſt infallible Cure in the Univerſe for the VENEREAL DISEASE, from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreme and deſperate Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are moſt horribly and roughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the Bones are affected with it.

Freſh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever ſo ſevere, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and ſo as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Impurity on one Hand, or a ſeminal Gleet or Weakneſs to follow on the other.

And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Diſeaſe, attended with Nocturnal Pains, univerſal Breaking-out, and all the other moſt exaſperated Symptoms, are ſoon overcome by it, and effectually and much more ſafely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in ſo eaſy and pleaſant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience, as to beſpeak it the only appoſite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this ſome Thouſands have found their great Joy experienc'd.

It is pleaſant to take, occaſions no Sickneſs or Diſguſt, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accompliſh'd, without the Knowledge of the neareſt Friend.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received an Injury, may by only a Doſe or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehenſions; for it ſuffers no lurking Venom to lie in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch in a gentle, eaſy, and moſt effectual Manner.

All ſuch likewiſe as doubt they have ſome remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doſes of it intirely free themſelves from all Suſpicion of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulneſs, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids, and on this Account, in all ſcorbutick, ſcrophulous, and even cancerous Eruptions or Foulneſſes of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dram than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this moſt Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is Six Shillings a Pot, which, conſidering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being ſufficient in moſt Caſes to accompliſh the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Ramſay's Toyſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready ſealed up with a Book of Inſtructions, by the Peruſal of which, all Perſons who are ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe may perfectly underſtand their own Condition, and ever know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is thoroughly rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Anti-Syphilicon.
